

Mind HK is a fast-paced, quick-growing mental health charity, with the mission to ensure that no one in Hong Kong is facing a mental health problem alone. Since our launch in November 2017, we have trained over 7,000 people on mental health awareness, have over 50,000 users per month on our website, and regularly engage with hundreds of thousands of people in the Hong Kong community through our campaigns.

Part-time Clinical Advisor

We are currently seeking a bilingual (Cantonese and English) part-time Clinical Advisor who can contribute to various projects and duties within the Charity.

This position is open to qualified mental health professionals who are interested in contributing to projects targeting mental health awareness, facilitating access to mental health services and reducing stigma.

The successful candidate will be closely involved with the development of an online Virtual Assistant ('Help Me') which aims to provide mental health information and help to Hong Kong users. This will be delivered in Cantonese and English, and the content will centre around common mental health topics.

This role does not involve direct clinical work or client contact.

Job Responsibility:

- Develop, edit and proofread bi-lingual content for Mind HK's clinical resources
- Consult with Mind HK team on various projects and campaigns to provide mental health expertise and ensure that all communications reflect accurate, safe and up to date information
- Assist with development of in-house processes to ensure that the Charity and affiliated partners comply with necessary regulations (e.g. clinical governance frameworks).
- Represent Mind HK at talks, panels and events where required
- Assist with co-ordination of clinical professional volunteers
- Occasional delivery of training sessions (e.g. Mental Health 101, Mental Health in the Workplace)

Qualifications/ Skills:

- Qualified mental health professional (Psychiatrist, Clinical Psychologist, Counsellor or Mental Health Nurse)
- Eligible for professional registration in country where training was completed (e.g. HCPC, APA)
- Good written and communication skills
- Fluent in Cantonese and English preferable, Putonghua a plus
- Passion for increasing mental health awareness and reducing stigma in the community

Terms: 2 to 3 days per week; salary - negotiable

To apply for this position, please email hr@mind.org.hk with a brief statement of interest and motivation, CV, dates of availability, and level of proficiency with written and spoken Chinese (Cantonese: preferred; Putonghua: desirable) and English.
